THE SEXUAL VICTIMISATION OF WOMEN AND GIRLS: GENDER SPECIFIC RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION

TUESDAY 5TH JULY 2022, AT 3PM

VENUE: ATTLEE SUITE, PORTCULLIS HOUSE, 1
VICTORIA EMBANKMENT, LONDON SW1A 2JR

Christian women and girls, and those of other religious minorities, are routinely persecuted because of their faith. For example, in countries like Pakistan, Nigeria and Egypt, it is common for a Christian girl to be abducted, raped, forced to convert to Islam and marry her abductor. Her gender and faith make her a nobody in society lacking all rights.

Speaking will be a Nigerian woman who runs a trauma centre for survivors of Boko Haram atrocities, Archbishop Angaelos of London, of the Coptic Orthodox Church in Britain and Ireland, and Professor Javaid Rehman, who is an expert on Pakistan's legal system and how it disenfranchises religious minority women.
